

Happy Birthday,
Linda

Hope you've enjoyed your day. I thought about you.

The weather's been real nice here. It makes me itchy for new clothes.
But I'm controlling it.
We're gradually getting our bills paid off its Such a good feeling. If we can just live here
through the summer, I think we'll be caught up.
The rent is incredible cheap!

Well never find another place this cheap.

Well gotta go.
