Dear Linda,

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Thank you for calling when you were home. It was nice to hear from you knowing you are doing well.

Am happy you have found that "special one" and plan to be married in May.

Today it's snowing. Hopefully my family plans to come down for Christmas Sunday, however the roads must be clear so only one knows.

Have been busy cooking, washing dishes, and cleaning. Have trouble bringing it all together however on the last days things work out one way or the other.

Something funny is when you see two ex-husbands discuss their ex-wife. Life goes on in spite of my best efforts.

Want to start enjoying the season now for myself instead of what I can do for others. Don't want to forget me in the shuffle. Take care me.
