

Wise men,
kings from distant lands,
traveled from afar
to touch the very heart of God that lay beneath the star.
The wise still come to search for Him,
a promise now to claim,
for He who seeks
with humble heart
will find Him just the same.

Dearest Linda

May you find in Jesus
a reason for continued hope and joy this Christmas and always.

In His Love,
Janet

It was so good to see you! You looked great! These are so late because they were stored in KS and this is the first chance I've had to get them out.

Hope to stop through there the end of March if you're still there! If not, I'll see you in ^{"You will seek Me and find Me} when you seek Me with all your heart."

JEREMIAH 29:13 NIV

Tupeka! Love
you!
