

If it were up to me,
the song of birds
would wake you
on your birthday...
but not too early.
Plus, they'd bring you coffee...

If it were up to me,
everyone you met all day
would have to bow and say,
"Happy Birthday, you warm, witty, and wonderful person.
What can I possibly do to add to your joyous day?"

If it were up to me,
birthday candles would stand for endearing qualities, not years.
And your candles
would undoubtedly cover
at least two cakes...

If it were up to me,
you'd have
the kind of birthday
you deserve...
the happiest birthday
that there could ever be.

AUDREY DONOVAN

I love you
Happy Birthday
Jen
