KU is such a beautiful place to work!

You make a difference in the success of Information Services and of KU.

As you transition to a different work space
and possibly work group, please take pride in your accomplishments -
past, present and future.

Even though during times of change,
it may seem like you are not appreciated,
you are appreciated.

You and your co-workers are what make IT and IS and KU
a great place to be.

The KU mission cannot be accomplished without dedicated employees like you.

Welcome to your new environment.
